Rules Governing Fines and Privileges.

1 Any companion failing to give the proper salutation upon entering or retiring from the hayloft, rising to speak, depositing a ballot, or in crossing the loft, shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

2 In addressing any officer by any other than their proper title, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

3 For using the word brother, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

4 For using terms of fathoms, feet, inches, dollars, cents or money, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

5 For crossing the right leg over the left, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

6 For having his regalia off he shall pay a fine of 1 straw (when voting excepted).

7 For raising his regalia with his right hand, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

8 For holding his cigar or his pipe with his right hand, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

9 For lighting his cigar or his pipe with his right hand, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

10 For using his right hand in taking a chew of tobacco, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

11 For paying his fine with his right hand, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

12 Officers addressing the C. H. from any position other than his station shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

13 Any officer leaving his hitching post without permission, or putting some companion in his place, shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

14 For using his right hand, for any purpose that the left can be substituted for, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

15 For using profane or ungentlemanly language in the loft, he shall pay a fine of 5 straws.

16 For speaking without rising to his feet, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

17 Failing to speak at least once each meeting, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw, to be imposed by the C. H. just before adjournment.

18 For any neglect of duty of an officer, he shall pay a fine of 1 straw.

19 New members shall be exempt from fines the night they are initiated.

20 The C. H. shall be exempt from fine for using his right hand, or pen, in signing warrants, etc.

21 The C. of S. shall be exempt from fine for using his right hand in the performance of the duties of his office, but in all other cases the C. H. and C. of S., shall be as liable to a fine as any companion.

22 Any companion taking a helpmate shall pay a fine of $\frac{1}{2}$ bundle; any companion applying for a divorce shall pay a fine of $\frac{1}{2}$ bundle. If an increase in his family, for a boy the fine shall be 10 straws, for a girl 5 straws.

23 Any companion having a fine imposed on him shall not be allowed the privilege of the floor to make a motion, to speak on a question, or to vote until such fines are paid in full.

24 Each companion shall be given a copy of these Fines and Privileges. But if he loses, destroys or gives it away he shall pay a fine of 5 straws for another copy.

25 Any companion who so far forgets himself as to become drowsy, and have an inclination to sleep, shall, for the privilege of using the hayloft as a lodging house, pay 5 straws.

26 For the privilege of smoking a pimp stick rake tooth as cigarettes are commonly called, he shall pay two straws. The same rules govern him as to smoking a cigar or pipe.

27 Any companion not having straws to pay his finds may apply to another companion to loan him the necessary straws, but for the privilege of using the hayloft as a broker's office he shall pay 1 straw.

28 As yawning has a depressing effect upon others, any companion guilty of this offence shall pay 1 straw for the privilege.

29 Privileges of the evening shall be 5 straws.
